PART II TEACHING PLAN

Introduction

ATTENTION: Good afternoon and welcome to your last review class in drill and ceremonies for this year.

MOTIVATION: A retreat ceremony is the final official duty of the day in which we honor the flag of our country. It is a very solemn ceremony that requires the dedication of each participant in the ceremonial squadron.

OVERVIEW: We will review the procedures that will be used at _____. NOTE: If more than one school is to be supported, the instructor must provide adequate guidance on the conduct of the ceremony at each school. The generic lesson plan listed in CAP2S2DC5.6 should be adapted to each school's layout. In supporting several schools, the instructor must coordinate the movement of cadets to those schools for the practice and actual ceremony.

TRANSITION: Are we ready?

Body

MP 1        NOTE: The instructor will appoint each cadet to the ceremonial squadron position that he or she is to fill. This is to include cadets in CAP 4. CAP 4 cadets will not participate in this review, as their training schedule is different.

MP 2        NOTE: The review will proceed based on schools supported. Each group of cadets will review their assignments to assure that the practice next week, at the supported schools, goes smoothly. CAP 4 cadets will have to be briefed and rehearsed on their duties off-line by the assigned CAP 5 cadets.

The instructor will assist each group as necessary to assure complete review of the retreat procedure.
